

BY-LAWS
OF THE
NORTH CAROLINA LAW ENFORCEMENT TRAINING OFFICERS ASSOCIATION

Article I

Name and Objectives

1. Name: The official name, until regularly changed by constitutional amendment, shall be:

North Carolina Law Enforcement Training Officers Association and shall be referred to in these by-laws as the “Association”.

At no time shall any member or non-member of the Association use its name for any endorsement – whether personal or professional – without review and approval of the membership in a general meeting.

2. Objectives: To upgrade the law enforcement profession through the promotion of quality training by:

(A) the exchange of materials, ideas, knowledge, and techniques;

(B) providing input for meaningful training standards throughout the law enforcement agencies in North Carolina;

(C) seeking the enactment of needed legislation, both independently and through active participation in “Law Enforcement Association Presidents” (LEAP) activities, for purposes of enhancing the quality and professionalism of law enforcement, especially in the field of training.

ARTICLE II

Executive Board

1. Objectives: Subject to the directions of the members of this Association, the business and property of the Association shall be managed and controlled by the Executive Board who shall implement the general policy of the Association.
2. Membership: The members of the Executive Board shall be the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Sergeant-At-Arms, three Regional Coordinators, C.J. Commission Representative and the Immediate Past President who shall serve as Chairperson of the Board. In the event the Immediate Past President is not present at a meeting and Executive Board business needs to be conducted, the President will serve as Chairman of the Board for the purpose of conducting the necessary business. All members, except the Commission Representative, shall serve a two-year term and shall be active members of the Association with membership dues maintained in a current status.
3. Quorum: The majority of the Executive Board present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business. No business of the Board shall be transacted without a quorum. Voting by the Executive Committee can be accomplished by electronic communication, if the business needs to be conducted prior to the next scheduled meeting.
4. Meetings: The Board shall meet at least once annually either prior to or immediately following one of the Association's quarterly meetings for purposes of organization and conducting any necessary business. The Board's Chairperson shall be responsible for notification of place, date and time of such meetings to all Board members in advance of the meeting
5. Special Meetings: Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President or the Vice-President and must be called by either of them on the written request of any member of the Board.
6. Resignations: Any member of the Executive Board may resign at any time by giving written notice of such resignation to the Chairperson.
7. Vacancies: Any vacancy on the Board occurring during the two-year period may be filled for the unexpired term by the Board members then serving and by affirmative vote of the majority thereof. Any members so elected shall hold this office until the Association's next regular election.

ARTICLE III

Members and Meetings of Members

1. Class of Membership: The membership of the Association shall be classified as “Active” members.

2. Active Membership: Applicants for active membership in the Association must meet at least one of the following criteria:

(A) be an instructor certified by the North Carolina Criminal Justice or Sheriffs’ Standards Commission;

(B) be a member/staff member of the North Carolina Criminal Justice or Sheriffs’ Standards Commission;

(C) be an employee of the North Carolina Justice Academy, Department of Community Colleges, or other accredited college or university involved in Criminal Justice training;

(D) be a designated Field Training Officer;

(E) be an “in-service” training officer for a law enforcement agency.

Nothing in these provisions shall be construed to exclude from active membership any person already having the status of active member as of the date of adoption of these bylaws.

3. Eligibility: Eligibility of future members shall be determined by the Membership Committee and the Executive Board. The status of a member as of date of adoption of these by-laws will not change.

4. Rights of Members: Except as qualified by definitions of membership above, the right of a member to vote and all right, title, and interest in or to the Association shall cease on the termination of membership.

5. Quarterly Meetings: The Association shall meet during each calendar year on a quarterly basis at such time and place as determined by the members based on the recommendations of the Meeting/Program Planning Committee. If, during the interval between meetings, it becomes impossible to hold the meeting as previously decided, the President shall determine the time and place to hold such meetings and shall make appropriate notification of such changes to the Meeting/Program Committee Chairperson.

6. Notice of Meetings: Notice of the dates, times and locations of the quarterly meetings shall be sent by the Chairperson of the Meeting/Program Planning Committee, in writing or electronically, to each person who appears upon the records of the Association as a member.

7. Special Meetings: Special meetings of the members may be called at any time by the President, Vice-President or any two other officers in collaboration and must be called by the President on receipt of a written request of one-third of the membership.

8. Quorum: A quorum will consist of the voting members present at any meeting, and the act of a majority of the members present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the full membership.

9. Voting: All voting members of the Association must show proof of membership in the Association prior to voting on any matters before the full body. Procedures for voting shall be as follows:

(A) General Business of the Association: Upon all questions the vote may be taken verbally, but when one-fifth of the members present demand a roll call vote such vote shall be taken. The Secretary shall call the roll and in any such case the vote of each member shall be entered in the minutes of the Association.

(B) Election of Officers: The election of officers for the Association shall be accomplished through a secret balloting of the membership present based upon the nominees brought before the membership by the Nominating Committee.

(C) Other Secret Ballot: Nothing in these by-laws shall prohibit a vote by secret ballot on any issue before the membership when demanded by one-fifth of those present.

10. Rules of Order: When any question of Parliamentary Law shall arise which is not expressly covered or implied by the by-laws, the presiding officer shall be governed in such decisions by the provisions of the most current edition of "Robert's Rules of Order".

11. Expulsion from the Association: The President shall have the summary power by vote of three-fourths of the total of its membership, voting in secret ballot, to suspend, expel, or terminate the membership of any member for conduct which disturbs the order, dignity, business, or harmony or impairs the good name, popularity or propriety of the Association, or which is likely to endanger the welfare, interest or character of the Association or its members. Such action shall not be taken unless all members of the Association and the accused have been notified in writing within ten days prior to the meeting, and the accused be entitled to be heard at the meeting, that a member of the Association proposes to move such action, specifying the name of the accused. The proceedings shall be final and absolute.

ARTICLE IV

Finances, Dues and Delinquencies

1. Fiscal Year: The fiscal year of the Association shall commence on September 1 of each year and end on August 31 of each year.
2. Membership Dues: The cost of membership dues for active members shall be voted upon at the annual conference by a two-third majority vote of the members present. Active members may elect to pay dues for a three-year period with one payment at a discounted rate. The cost of dues shall remain the same from year to year in the event that an increase or decrease is not presented to the membership at the annual conference. All dues shall be payable on the first day of September each year.
3. Delinquencies: Members who for whatever reason, become delinquent in the payment of dues shall be subject to the following provisions:
 - (A) No member who is in arrears for non-payment of dues shall be entitled to vote;
 - (B) The name of any member who dues are unpaid as of December 31 of each year shall automatically be dropped from the membership roster;
 - (C) Upon receipt of dues, both past and present, any membership shall be restored upon approval of the Membership Committee.

ARTICLE V

Officers and Committees

1. Constituted Officers: The officers of the Association shall be the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Sergeant-At-Arms, three Regional Coordinators, C.J. Commission representative and the Immediate Past President.
